Offered by the north American Association for the Catechumenate

This program is made possible through a Worship Renewal Grant from the Calvin Institute of Christian Worship, Grand Rapids, MI. with funds provided by Lilly Endowment Inc.

Why the Catechumenate?

We live in an age when Christianity appears to be in decline and many church members are no longer sure what it means to live out their faith in daily life. What is needed is a paradigm shift from members to disciples—to train and equip believers for a life of discipleship. Now is the time for the Church to reclaim the gift of the catechumenate, an ancient / future process of faith formation that prepares people for baptism and / or living out their baptism.

WHAT? An experiential training event in the faith formation process and worship rites of the catechumenate including a Saturday night Easter Vigil. Participants will be invited into their own spiritual journey for the weekend.

WHO FOR? Pastors, worship leaders, educators, catechetical teams, and students are invited. Congregations are encouraged to send a whole team. All participants receive a free, new catechumenate manual for congregations.

WHEN? Each institute is a three-day event beginning with lunch at noon on Friday and concluding around 3 pm on Sunday afternoon. Registration and check-in is available on Friday from 10:30 am to 1:30 pm.

WHERE? NAAC is offering three institute venues in 2012—one in the West (Phoenix area), one in the East (Baltimore area), and one in the Midwest (Minneapolis). See back of brochure for info. On specific sites and dates.

TO REGISTER—Either mail the attached registration form or register online at www.catechumenate.org. Registration refundable 'til 30 days before event.
