

The Lutheran Toolbox:

Workshops on Grace in the Public Square, 2021-22

Ever since Martin Luther posted the 95 Theses on the Wittenberg door, the Lutheran Church has been a public church, communicating the Gospel through public means. Today our culture yearns for grace, so the Grand Canyon Synod invites you to participate in a series of quarterly workshops to learn and cultivate our public witness. We will invite a variety of guest teachers to share their understanding of the theological and historical resources to engage in public ministry.

Fall, 2021: The Lutheran Toolbox

How does our theological foundation prepare us to become a public church? What Lutheran resources are available to us? How can Lutherans help bridge the many divides that exist in culture today? Join the Rev. Dr. Craig Nessen as we explore these questions and more!

Winter, 2022: Lutherans in Action

Guest Teacher: The Rev. Heidi Neumark, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, New York.

Author of three books, Pastor Neumark has helped build multiple community ministries in the Bronx and Manhattan. She will share what theological principles motivated the creation of after school programs, food pantries, homeless shelters and more. In addition, we will explore the nuts and bolts of developing a public ministry.
